Appearance(s)

County Administrator Sel Hemingway appeared before mayor and council in regards to the 1% Sales Tax Referendum. Mr. Hemingway stated that on November 4th, 2014 this referendum will be on the ballot for voting and all citizens are urged to take part in this process that will bring about some changes within our county/state. Mr. Hemingway stated that this new Capital Project Sales Tax Referendum will bring about changes that includes Dredging, Countywide Road Improvements, and Fire and Rescue Service Enhancements. Collection of the CPST would begin on May 1, 2015 and end on April 30, 2019. The tax proposed for Georgetown County would be limited to 4 years and could not be extended beyond those term limits without being approved by voters in another referendum.

Administrator's Report

Administrator Mauretta Dorsey stood before Mayor and Council stating that on today 25 years ago Hurricane Hugo made landfall devastating the East Coast. Mrs. Dorsey passed out a Hurricane safety checklist to council as well as posting some additional checklists at Town Hall for citizens to pick up and review. The Town of Andrews will turn 105 years old on September 30, 2014. We will celebrate this milestone on Saturday, September 29, 2014 from 11am-6pm on Main Street. Mrs. Dorsey continued that we are hoping for a large turnout since we have gotten a lot of feedback and registration from vendors and citizens who would like to participate. Mrs. Dorsey continued that it will be very family oriented and lots of fun. She continued that Advance Auto Parts helps support the Juvenile Diabetes Research foundation which is an annual event, and donations are very much needed.

Mrs. Dorsey continued that they are looking for a group contribution from the Town of Andrews and any donations will be greatly appreciated.

Mayor Giles asked that we amend the agenda to include Council Member Patel who wanted to talk about the events for this upcoming weekend

Council Report

Council Member Sudha Patel stood before mayor and council stating that the event roster in regards to vendors and participation is growing every day. Ms. Patel continued that considering the time spent on planning this event, it has turned around rather quickly and she has anticipated this to be a very good hit for the Town. She continued that we have started out with zero in regards to funds but we are now in good financial standing. Ms. Patel continued that this event will create community pride and that is something that the Town needs.

Department Head Report

Mayor's Report

Mayor Giles stood before council thanking Mr. Sel Hemingway for his thorough presentation in helping to get the word out on the positives of the CPST. Council Member Angela Anderson stated that the 911 event was a success and it was very beautiful. She thanked everyone who played a part in organizing the event.

Adjournment

Council Member Angela Anderson made a motion to adjourned, it was seconded by Council Member Patsy Greene.
