MARCH MADNESS OPINION

BY: QUINCY TAYLOR

So, a little update about March Madness, coin wars finally concluded, and I will say... The Freshman should have won, ain't no way we were in the lead by three thousand points and then got taken down... But whatever, I suppose the Seniors deserved the win. Don't forget to bring in your dollars and participate! As you all heard, the reveal is on the 31st, and we will see how much money we raised; hopefully, it was a lot. Also on Friday the 28th and Monday the 30th, bring in one dollar to buy a ticket to get a chance to pick one of the list of people: SRO Dean, Mr. Engstrom, Nate, Aaliyah Bowyer, Brittney Nagy, Leah Kinser, Serenity Gosnell, Taylor Johnson, Kiera Kemmery, Kaden Weston, or Noah Bets. Stay tuned for the pep rally on Tuesday, the 31st.

SENIOR Q AND A WITH KYLA BADDELEY BY: NIKKI FREET

Interviewee: Kyla Baddeley

Q: Knowing what you know now, what advice would you give your freshman self?

A: Learn a way of studying that works best for you and don't be afraid to ask for help.

Q: Do you have a favorite high school memory?

A: Developing friendships with my teachers.

Q: Did you have a favorite class or project? What made it great?

A: Psychology class when we made paper brains. Psychology has always interested me and Mrs Cooper is an amazing teacher.

Q: What's the most important lesson high school taught you?

A: How to be responsible.

SENIOR Q AND A WITH KRISTAL GIRON BY: NIKKI FREET

Interviewee: Kristal Giron

Q: Knowing what you know now, what advice would you give your freshman self?

A: Make sure you have fun.

Q: Do you have a favorite high school memory?

A: Summer camps with the cheerleaders, Early morning cheer practices, or enrichment with my friends.

Q: What's the most important lesson high school taught you?

A: Not everything is going to be easy. Not everyone is going to be nice, but that's how life works.
