

THE REVERBERATIONS OF OUR YEAR

FCA

BY: BRENLEE ARMOR

Every Friday at lunch high school FCA meets in Mrs. Mathias' classroom. In case you don't know, FCA stands for 'Fellowship of Christian Athletes' and it is a group that meets to discuss their faith. Not every school is allowed to do this, thankfully our school is lucky enough to be able to have a group like this. Below is a short interview with Kaydence Carver, a freshman member of our FCA.

Q: What is your favorite part of FCA?

A: My favorite part of FCA is the family that it creates from sharing our faith and being together and loving each other no matter what.

Q: How long have you been apart of FCA?

A: I have been a part of FCA since 8th grade with Mrs Dehoff, and have started going to the high school ones ever since the beginning of the year.

Q: If you had to describe the group in three words, what would they be?

A: Friendship, Kindness, Fun because together we share kindness, fun and friendship.

Q: Do you think more people should join?

A: I do think more people should join and share their faith with others that share it with them.

Q: How do you join FCA?

A: There is not really a way to join it. You can just come to Mrs Mathias' class room on Fridays at lunch. We will always take anybody that would want to join and share our faith.

Q: What is one thing you have learned since you joined?

A: One thing I have learned is to follow God and lead in his way no matter what.

MUSIC CONCERT RECAP

BY: QUINCY TAYLOR

Hopefully, everyone made it out to see the concert on Thursday, April 23rd, but if you couldn't make it, that's okay. As you may know, there are two seniors in the band/choir programs: Nikki Freet in choir and Alayna Braham playing clarinet in band. This past Thursday was their last ever concert at Sebring. It's sad to see them go, as they have been involved with the band and choir programs for many years, but we wish the best for what's ahead for them. Unfortunately, the concert got rescheduled from last Thursday, April 16, to this Thursday, April 23, and so it was combined with our banquet. There are many different awards, and each of them is given out to a different person each year.

The black out had many a little worried.

Ahleya G: I was confused and thought we were going to blow up because of the gas leak. I was also mad because my phone didn't get any service in the school, so I was stuck in the dark with nothing to do.

Brenlee A: I was kind of scared, mostly because I was in a hallway with only one other person

Jenna K: It was kinda fun, reminded me of a horror movie or horror video game. It was fun to have friends around and not be alone in the dark.

Finnley R: I was standing in the auditorium with Emily when the lights shut off. I couldn't text my mommy, and Mr. Engstrom wouldn't let me look out the doors at the rain. I was very bored and scared of the dark, so... Never go in the auditorium when it's dark, chat.

This year, Mr. Engstrom, the band director, had started a new Jazz Band group for anyone who was in band and wasn't in the Jazz Band class. In one of the choir songs, "How Far I'll Go," a soloist, Reagan Buchs, is featured at the beginning of the song, I believe. Congrats to everyone who got an award that night; there were a lot of them, so if you want specifics, go ask Mr. Engstrom.
