THE SCHOOL DISTRICT

Sodus is an innovative school district that has focused its efforts in recent years on curriculum development and implementation, best practice reading and mathematics instruction, improved graduation rates, and sustained leadership.

The District partners with community and county agencies extensively to provide quality support and services and to ensure the success of every child. Sodus is a Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (PBIS) school where respect, responsibility, and kindness are explicitly taught, supported, and expected of every individual in the school community.

Students in grades Pre-K through 3 attend the Sodus Elementary School. Sodus Intermediate School serves students in grades 4-6. Students in grades 7-12 attend the Sodus Jr./Sr. High School.

THE COMMUNITY

Sodus Central School District, located in Wayne County, New York, services much of the Town of Sodus, plus a small part of Arcadia. The district covers 66 square miles of primarily agricultural land including the villages of Sodus and Sodus Point, and the unincorporated areas of Wallington, Sodus Center, South Sodus, Alton, and Joy.

Sodus is a rural, agricultural community with a diverse population. Many community residents commute to work in Rochester, which is located 30 miles west of Sodus.

The recreational opportunities of the Sodus Point waterfront community, Brantling Ski Resort, the Sodus Chamber of Commerce Fall Festival, and area bed and breakfast industry serve as attractions to the District. There are many active community service clubs in the district as well.

Nurtured by the influence of a diverse community, our district is committed to the success of every student. We will support our students in developing the skills and strategies needed to achieve academic excellence and to become respectful, responsible, kind citizens of a global society. We are dedicated to sustaining an environment that fosters a joy for life and continued learning.
