Two Finalists Selected in Bangor Township School's Superintendent Search

BAY CITY, MI — The Bangor Township Schools Board of Education has selected two finalists to advance in the district's superintendent search process. Stephan Clark, Superintendent of Vassar Public Schools, and Stephen Bouvy, Superintendent of Millington Community Schools, have been chosen to participate in second-round interviews.

Bouvy currently leads Millington Community Schools and brings more than two decades of educational experience, having served as a teacher, coach, principal, and district administrator. He is known for his commitment to student success, community engagement, and providing strong academic and extracurricular opportunities for students.

Clark serves as Superintendent of Vassar Public Schools, where he leads district efforts focused on academic excellence, student well-being, and community partnerships. His leadership emphasizes continuous improvement, student achievement, and preparing students for success beyond graduation.

Second-round interviews will be held at the Edison Administration Building and are open to the public. Please note there will be an approximately 10-minute break between interviews. The second interview is tentatively scheduled for 6:30 p.m.; however, the actual start time will depend on the length of the first interview.

Monday, June 8

- 5:30 PM Stephan Clark | Superintendent, Vassar Public Schools
- 6:30 PM Stephen Bouvy | Superintendent, Millington Community Schools

The Board is working in partnership with the Michigan Association of School Boards (MASB) to conduct the search and identify the district's next superintendent. The Board anticipates selecting a finalist later this month, with the new superintendent expected to begin duties on July 1.
