BAY CITY, MI — The Bangor Township Schools Board of Education has selected Stephen Bouvy as its next superintendent, pending the successful completion of contract negotiations and formal approval by the Board later this month.

He comes to Bangor Township Schools with a deep passion for education, a background in helping at-risk students and an excitement to build on current success. Bouvy states, "I am very impressed by your close-knit, family-valued community. I am excited about the level of support everyone has for the students and staff and I am excited about the initiatives already set in place that will provide more opportunities for students."

Bouvy was chosen following a comprehensive search process that included candidate interviews, opportunities for stakeholder input, and careful consideration by the Board of Education. He will will succeed Dr. Matthew Schmidt who has been the superintendent since 2013.

"We appreciate the community and staff engagement throughout this important search process and would especially like to thank Dave Moore and MASB for their collaboration, support and guidance," said Board President Jason Forgash. "The Board is confident that Bouvy possesses the experience, leadership, and vision needed to continue moving Bangor Township Schools forward and serving the needs of our students, staff, families, and community."

The position has been offered to Bouvy, and both parties will now enter into contract negotiations. A proposed employment agreement is expected to be presented to the Board of Education for consideration and at the June 22nd meeting.

Additional details regarding the transition and the superintendent's anticipated start date will be shared once the contract has been finalized and approved.
