Texas Community College Finance Model Webinars

Register today for the Community College Finance Webinar Series, jointly hosted by TACC and Bellwether.

This four-part webinar series is focused on the Texas Community College Finance model. It provides college leaders with a deeper understanding of how the HB 8 formula operates today, how it has evolved since its passage, and the considerations ahead as the sector continues working toward a sustainable and predictable finance model. The insights to be shared during these webinars have important implications for community college governance in Texas.

Registration is open for all four webinars through the hyperlinks below:

- Formula Overview & Design (October 6)
- A Closer Look at Performance Funding (October 12)
- Forecasting Future Outcomes Funding (November 11)
- Policy Levers for Sustainability (December 1)

The first webinar in this series is tomorrow (Tuesday, October 6) from 11:00 AM to 12:00 PM CT. Any Texas Trustees, community college staff, or external partners are welcome to participate in this webinar series. Recordings will be made available online.
