UNUSUAL ENROLLMENT HISTORY FORM

Award Year 2026-2027

Student Information

Last Name:_____First Name:_____MI: _____

SSN:_____/_____/_____Date of Birth:_____/_____/_____

The U.S. Department of Education may require a college or university to complete an Unusual Enrollment History Review because the student received Federal funds at multiple education institutions during the review period. This process requires Western Texas College to review the student's enrollment history during the review period and determine whether the student earned academic credit at all of the schools previously attended during the award year(s) they received Federal Pell Grant or Direct Loan funds.

Schools Attended

Processing for Unusual Enrollment History cannot begin until a completed form and all academic transcripts are provided.

- Please list all colleges attended during the time listed below, including Western Texas College. If you attended additional or multiple schools during the indicated time frame, attach an additional page listing the schools you attended and include your name and email address at the top of each page.
- You must provide an academic transcript (official or unofficial) from each college you have ever attended and received federal aid from.
- You must also submit an official transcript to the Admissions Office. If you have not submitted official transcripts to Western Texas College, please attach an academic transcript for any institution attended or submit them to the address below:
