Kids Marketplace- Now Accepting Entries

Downtown Bainbridge will host a Kids Marketplace on Friday, June 13, from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., giving young entrepreneurs the opportunity to showcase and sell their handmade creations in a fun and supportive community environment.

The Kids Marketplace is designed to encourage creativity, confidence, and entrepreneurial skills among local youth. Participants will have the chance to create products, interact with customers, manage sales, and experience what it's like to run their own small business.

Children ages 5-14 are encouraged to sell handcrafted items such as artwork, jewelry, crafts, homemade decorations, and other creative products. The event aims to inspire innovation while teaching valuable lessons in responsibility, communication, and financial literacy.

Community members are invited to come downtown, support local youth, and shop unique handmade items created by talented young entrepreneurs.

The Kids Marketplace is part of the City of Bainbridge's ongoing efforts to create engaging community events that support families, local businesses, and future generations of leaders and creators.

To participate in the event, the City of Bainbridge asks that participants complete the registration form by June 5 and bring a donation of any amount to support the Bainbridge-Decatur County Humane Society on the day of the event.

Bainbridge Oaks Disc Golf Course Earns Top 10 State Ranking

The Bainbridge Oaks Disc Golf Course has been recognized as one of the top disc golf destinations in Georgia, recently earning the distinction of being ranked the #7 highest-rated course in the state. This achievement is especially notable given that Georgia is home to nearly 250 disc golf courses, making the recognition a significant milestone for the local facility.

As one of the newer courses in the region, Bainbridge Oaks' rapid rise in rankings underscores both its quality and the growing enthusiasm for disc golf within the community. The course has quickly become a favorite among both residents and visitors, offering a well-maintained and engaging experience for players of all skill levels.

Community and Economic Development Director Steve O'Neil emphasized the broader impact of the course, noting its role beyond recreation.

"The success of the Bainbridge Oaks Disc Golf Course highlights how quality recreational amenities can enhance both quality of life and economic growth," said O'Neil. "We're seeing increased visitation from players across the region, and the sport itself continues to grow locally with new opportunities like organized leagues now meeting regularly at one of our local restaurants. It's exciting to see how this course is bringing people together while also serving as an economic driver for our community."

Disc golf continues to gain popularity nationwide, and Bainbridge is no exception. The emergence of local leagues and regular meetups reflects a strong and growing community around the sport. These activities not only foster social connections but also support local businesses, further amplifying the course's economic impact.

City officials view the ranking as both a point of pride and a sign of continued opportunity, as Bainbridge Oaks Disc Golf Course establishes itself as a destination for outdoor recreation in Southwest Georgia.
