NEW BUSINESS

Trackside – Determine if Council objects to liquor permit issuance and wants a hearing with Division of Liquor Control. Dave Rainey remarked that council has a right to ask for a hearing with the Division of Liquor Control regarding Trakside, but he has noticed that the previous issues at Trakside have gotten better. Chief George agreed with Rainey's assessment. Randy Loveless asked if there was new management and Rainey said there is new family management. Rainey also noted that he had spoken to other businesses in the area and they have also said it has gotten better, because of this he does not feel we should hinder the process with Liquor Control. After discussion, Dave Rainey made a motion to not object to Trakside to being issues a liquor license, seconded by Matt Scholl. All votes were yay.

MAYOR: Mayor Welsh said he would like to have a Utility Committee meeting scheduled regarding a 6119 District and Harrison Township. Matt Scholl said he will reach out to other committee members and schedule a meeting.

COUNCIL COMMENTS

- Roger Clark asked if the school uses the park during recess, should they provide insurance. Randy Loveless said it wouldn't be a bad idea. Bert Cline asked what was the difference between the school using it or kids playing throughout the week. Clark also asked who is responsible for painting the red, white, and blue stripes for the 4th of July Festival. Mark Stewart was asked to check with the Men's Club at the May 21st meeting. Clark pointed out the weeds down at the wellfield and Bert Cline replied that it will be looked after.
- Randy Loveless asked about the ODOT sign that is down. Bert Cline said it's ODOT's responsibility.
- Matt Scholl apologized for not being present as of late. Scholl expressed his disappointment at how plain the D.R. Horton homes look and said he was surprised that they were on slabs. Samantha was asked to get Matt the elevations that were presented by D.R Horton.

At 6:55 PM, Dave Rainey moved, seconded by Randy Loveless, to adjourn the meeting. All votes were yay and the meeting adjourned.
