

Hancock County Educational Service Center

7746 County Road 140 Findlay, Ohio 45840
419-422-7525 | www.hancockesc.org

Section 504 Essentials Process, Plans, and Perfect Compliance

This vital training will equip educators with the comprehensive knowledge and practical skills for Section 504 compliance. Participants will be guided through the 504 process, from referral and eligibility determination to understanding procedural safeguards. Participants will gain clarity on the law's requirements and best practices for implementation in our schools and classrooms.

Monday, November 3, 2025, 8:30am-3:30pm
(lunch on your own)

Hancock County Educational Service Center or virtually

Audience: Educators responsible for section 504 (administrators, counselors, student services personnel, lead teachers)

Registration Fee:

- Free for all Hancock County ESC member districts
- Free to all SORSA member districts
- $25 per attendee for all others

Presenter:

Jessica Dawso, Esq

Partner, Scott Scriven, LLP

No one can question that Jessica cares —about her clients, her cases and the children served by Ohio's public school districts. Jessica shares her clients' commitment to serving all students and it is demonstrated daily in her practice. A skilled advocate, Jessica represents school districts in special education disputes, civil rights claims, student discipline matters, and employment matters. Jessica's approachable manner, negotiation skills, and depth of knowledge on student issues makes her valued counsel for school districts. Prior to joining Scott Scriven LLP, Jessica served as Legal Counsel and Associate Director in the Office for Exceptional Children at the Ohio Department of Education. She practiced family, juvenile, and immigration law at the beginning of her career. Her prior experience provides a deep understanding of the regulatory and legal circumstances confronted by boards of education.

Registration Deadline: Friday 10/31/25

Click here to register
or visit www.hancockesc.org

Questions? Contact Jay Clark
clarkj@hancockesc.org
419-422-7525 ext. 240