

Safety Tips for parents: The National Center for Missing and Exploited Children offers some tips for parents on how to keep their children safe and safety tips for children.

Go over rules with children regarding whom they can visit when you are not home.

Keep line of communication open by telling your child to get out of dangerous or uncomfortable situations right away. Practice role-playing and basic safety skills with them.

Make sure children know their names, addresses, telephone numbers, and how to use the phone.

Contact you local law enforcement agency to determine if they can fingerprint and/or do photo identifications for your children.
