Student Scholarship Program Through Florida Realtors Education Foundation

The Florida Realtors Education Foundation Student Scholarship Program (FREF) was founded to help deserving students offset costs for college and/or post-graduate school. Who can apply: Any Florida high school senior who will be attending an undergraduate college or university; any Florida resident student currently enrolled in an undergraduate college or university (any major); or any Florida resident student pursuing a graduate degree is eligible. There are no limitations as to location of the college or university attended, as long as the applicant indicates the intent to return to work in Florida after graduation. Proof of the student's legal Florida residency is required, however.

As part of the application process, students must do the following:

Complete the online application (including a paragraph or two about how the scholarship might help them in their career)

Upload a Florida driver's license or government ID to prove Florida residency

Upload transcripts from the last three years of school

Provide three reference letters on school letterhead (one letter can be a personal reference but the other two must be from teachers, coaches or school administrators; all must be dated Jan. 2022 or later)

Upload the acceptance letter from one or more colleges where the student plans to attend in fall 2023

Scholarships start at $1,000. The number of scholarships and dollar amounts awarded may vary each year and are determined by the Education Foundation's Board of Directors. Criteria to be considered include but aren't limited to the following: academic achievements, financial need, relationship to the Realtor family, and contributions to family, school and community. The Foundation's Board of Directors has "sole and absolute discretion" over all decisions as to whether an applicant qualifies.

An important reminder to all applicants: The Florida Realtors Education Foundation Scholarship application is only available online. Please note that applications may not be mailed or faxed in for this scholarship. Only the applications submitted through this website will be eligible for review. Remember, you have until noon on March 9, 2023, to fill out the online application for the Florida Realtors Education Foundation's student scholarship program. Find the application form and check out FAQs on Florida Realtors' member website's scholarships page.
