Principal's Message

Dear families,

Last night was Mrs. Van Vuren's first time hosting a school-wide art show featuring every artist. We had a huge turnout to see the exhibit, meet the "famous artists" and enjoy the sounds of Freedom 7's creativity! It was outstanding!

Thank you, Mrs. Van Vuren, for inspiring our kiddos and to all who volunteered to make this night so special!

Smiles,
Kathy Lott

4th Grade 4-H Public Speaking Contest

In February, Freedom 7 4th Grade students participated in the 4-H Public Speaking Contest. To accompany the How We Express Ourselves PYP Unit, students had agency in choosing their topic, wrote their speech, and then delivered their speech to their classmates. The top 3 students from each class then moved on to the school contest to compete for a chance to present at the county-level competition in May. The top two winners of the county finals will have the opportunity to present their speech to the Brevard County Board of County Commissioners later that month. Through this experience, students were able to work on their research, writing, and communication Approaches to Learning. Congratulations to all!
