Principal's Message

Dear Freedom 7 Team,

See that ^^? Team. It is a "team" time of the year! We have been cheering about school starting, football starting, hockey season starting, basketball and so on. Before we know it we are posting Interims and ½ way through the first quarter. Whoa!

Guess what else we are cheering on? PENNY WARS!

Art Newsletter

Freedom 7 Artists are principled and caring! Artists clean up after themselves, respect all artwork and materials, and use class time well. Artists are using kind words when speaking to classmates. Check out the pictures below of artists using tools.

Ask your artist(s) how they are principled and caring in artmaking.

We are excited to be back in the ART Studio this year!

I am cleaning tables regularly, we will sanitize used art materials, and keep track of where artists are during art making.

Please have your student join the Google Classroom for use during the school year. I will have materials for artists to access in the art studio or while home.

Essential What?...

Essential Agreements in the PYP

September 10, 2021

You may have had your child come home talking about the Essential Agreements of their classrooms. Essential Agreements are a critical part of the learning environment in PYP classrooms. Unlike rules, Essential Agreements are co-created between the teacher and students. This process allows students to have their voice heard in how the classroom will function and flow. There are many creative ways teachers do this with students, and often the IB PYP Learner Profile is at the heart of creation of these agreements. Teachers may ask students things like what does learning look like, sound like, and feel like? It's important that everyone knows that the agreements are a living document that can be amended and changed as the class agrees. Ask your child about his or her Essential Agreements, and who knows, you may even consider creating some for your home environment. We know that the more ownership and voice students have in co-creating their learning environments, the more buy-in they are likely to have.

Dear Parents/Guardians,

Freedom 7 Elementary School of International Studies will hold elections for the School Advisory Council (S.A.C.) representatives on September 17, 2021 - September 24, 2021. Any parent of a student enrolled at Freedom 7 is eligible to run for a council seat. One of the roles of this council is to serve in an advisory capacity to the Principal. Another role is to target the varied educational and environmental goals set by its stakeholders.

Serving on the S.A.C., as a parent representative, is an important role. It will require the following commitments:

- Your attendance at monthly meeting – currently held on the third Tuesday of every month at 4:15 p.m., but subject to changes as the committee sees fit.
- An active role in the outreach functions of the S.A.C.
- A two-year commitment.

There are currently 2 parent seats available on the S.A.C. Both positions are for two years. If you are interested in serving on the committee, please fill out the nomination form on the next page. Briefly explain why you want to hold this position and be sure to include a short biography. In the instance you would like to nominate someone other than yourself, please check with him or her first. Then fill out the nomination form accurately on his/her behalf.

We encourage all interested parents to respond to this opportunity to serve Freedom 7 in a significant way.

All nomination forms must be returned to the front office no later than Thursday, September 16, 2021, at 4:00 p.m. The ballot containing the names of those who wish to serve will be sent home Friday, September 17, 2021. Ballots will be due back to the school by Friday, September 24, 2021, at 4:00 p.m.

Thank you,

Kathryn Lott
