

-----WEEK 2-----

MON, 1/29/24

CONTEST: Cake Decorating Contest - All students can create a cake at home for this contest. Your cake must represent a book that you love. Students will bring the cakes to the Library BEFORE school. Students who enter will get to bring friends to the Library during lunch to taste the entries - teachers are welcome to participate too!

TUES, 1/30/24

THEME: "Oh the Places You'll Go" - Wear a shirt or deck yourself out in colors from your favorite college destination or your chosen career!

EVENT: SSYRA March Madness - We know it's early, but let's start working on our brackets! Visit the Library or electronic collections like Sora to read as many Sunshine State Young Reader Award (SSYRA) books as you can before March Madness begins. See the bracket by the Longhorn Library to view the titles. Let's see which book will win the championship!!

WED, 1/31/24

WORD OF THE WEEK: Longhorns for Literacy! - Stay tuned into your Homeroom class throughout this semester for different words and activities.

EVENT: Lunch in the Library - Visit Mrs. Ford to make a reservation to come to the Library and eat your lunch! Once your reservation is made, you will get a pass to leave the cafeteria and enjoy a leisurely lunch in this special spot. Be sure to have your Passport handy for both making the reservation and for eating in the Library.

THURS, 2/1/24

THEME: "Reading suits everyone" - Cast your vote in the GENRE COLOR WARS by wearing the color of your favorite genre. Tallies for each represented genre will take place in ELA classes. See the list below to find your favorite:
