5. Adoption of the April Minutes - Ruth Singer

- Eddy Lynn motioned to accept the Minutes from the last meeting, minutes accepted.

6. Old business

- SAC open positions - all positions are filled per Eddy Lynn
- New members - Eddy Lynn Kledzik discussed ballots sent out and some new members have joined us.

7. New Business

- SAC 2022-23 Roster- Eddy Lynn Kledzik reviewed everyone who is on the roster.
- School Updates – Eddy Lynn Kledzik
 - 51 Volunteers attended our Orientation
 - All volunteers that are approved are allowed back in the building.
 - Numbers in grade levels 2nd and 5th are high. Sherburne will be attending 6-day count Friday.
 - New Cafe manager -Great Teacher special lunches, & free coffee.
- Parent Leadership Team - Ruth Singer explained the meetings are once a month and asked for 2 Volunteers to step into the role as our SAC Representatives to split the dates up.
- School Improvement Plan Rough Draft – Eddy Lynn reviewed the Template – we maintained our Grade A. Sherburne will review with District and they will tell him if more needs to be input. Goal is target students in need and close the gap. We are still an A but have dropped, we are above the state in all fields. We are pushing to beat our own goals from the past. Main areas of focus are Science, ELA and Math and strategies were shared to close gaps. Anyone with feedback may send to Jason Sherburne directly to review and add. Draft is due 9/7/22.
