Consideration of Open Issues

2:53 p.m. PTO Report: Lahn Haney, PTO President was introduced to the SAC Committee.

PTO President explained the upcoming PTO Events. The biggest event is the ice cream social and basket fundraiser donation. Shannon Coleman offered to make contact with Moos Ice Cream for possible donations. PTO President discussed PTO sponsoring for the event. It is $200 for ten buckets. Discussed creating shifts for parents and PTO members. Possibly breaking them up into 1 hour increments. Food for event was discussed, including hot dog dinner, drinks and water. Shannon Coleman offered to reach out to the Indian Harbour Beach Volunteer Fire Department about possibly donating their leftover hot dogs from a previous event. The pavilion will be utilized for the food and the street area by Metz Field will be utilized for the prize baskets.

PTO President discussed other fund raising events. Chilingo Night hosted by Elie Chan on December 11, 2019. It includes a chili contest between parents. The top 3 winners will receive Texas Roadhouse dinner for 2. The set price will be $5 to $10 for Chili sampling of Dixie cups at each station. There will also be BINGO on the opposite side in the cafeteria. Hot dogs, chips and drinks will be sold.

3:00 p.m. PTO President discussed the Jog-a-thon, the biggest Ocean Breeze fundraiser. The goal is set for $8000 and the entire profit goes to the school. Family Dance was also a big success. It requires a DJ, Publix donations of baked goods and lemonade donated by the PTO.

3:07 p.m. SAC BUDGET REPORT: Current Budget is $12,348.45.

Radio Update: Radio 1 provided an estimate of $1915.30. Communications Century discontinued Tericom. Still looking into BK Tech. Still looking into programs of radios. Discussed the importance of radios during lockdown drills and multiple classrooms were not aware because radios were turned off. We need radios to have at least two channels to operate properly. Looking to have them programmed during Christmas break. Theresa Grimison motion to accept and Shannon Coleman second.
