RE: Social Studies Instructional Materials Input Opportunities for Parents and Community Members

The Office of Curriculum and Instruction is pleased to announce four opportunities for parents and community members to provide input on the Social Studies materials for this adoption cycle. The newly adopted Social Studies instructional materials must be high quality and aligned with the Social Studies Standards. These materials will be implemented beginning in the 2024-2025 school year.

Please include the attached Parent/Community Involvement Memo in your upcoming newsletters and other communications from your school. The link to the memo can also be added to your school website.

Questions can be directed to Janet Stephenson, our instructional materials contact, by sending an email to stephenson.janet@brevardschools.org.
