

Principal Message 3/3/23

Stevenson Families,

This week sure was fun with our Read Across America, Dr. Seuss Out of Uniform Day yesterday. We had a bunch of “Things” around the school, joined by some foxes, Cat in the Hats, and fish! I hope everyone had a good time reading and discovered that they like Ms. Ward’s Green Eggs and Ham just like Sam I Am. I know I enjoyed the day!

Speaking of Ms. Ward, breakfast week begins Monday. Ms. Ward will be giving out prizes all week long for our students participating in School Breakfast.

We are excited to have our annual Career Day for our students on Wednesday. Thank you to all that have volunteered to present. I know our students are looking forward to learning about different careers. Thank you also to Mrs. Silva for organizing this every year for us.

A fundraiser in support of our Stevenson Odyssey of the Mind teams is underway. The Edgewood teams are organizing an “Egg My Yard” event to help pay for competitions. A portion of the proceeds will be shared with our teams. Please click the link for information and to participate. <https://forms.gle/Sk8ornRSy4zQ5sLr8>

That’s it for this week. I hope everyone has a wonderful weekend!

Sincerely,
