FUNDRAISING AMBASSADORS NEEDED

Please sign up to help as many volunteers are needed. New this year, we are additionally searching for liaisons for each surrounding neighborhood and sports teams as well as general Ambassadors to help with sales promotion leading up to the event. This is a great opportunity to gain hands-on experience in marketing, sales, project management, and/or event logistics while earning service hours. Please fill out a student interest form.

(This is ALL candidates running for office.)

You can also click here to create your own sample ballot with only candidates in your district.

There is an important primary election coming up! These elected officials have a direct impact on our students, teachers, staff and volunteers. Your vote is your voice. Please check your voter registration, learn what and who is on the ballot, and make a plan to vote! This primary will determine who is running in the November midterm election. Click the links below for more information!
