District Description

Tri County Public School is a state-accredited K-12 school located in the country south of DeWitt, Nebraska--two miles north of Highway 103 and Highway 4 intersection. In 1966, the towns of DeWitt, Plymouth, Swanton and rural districts consolidated to form a district of 270 square miles of Jefferson, Gage, and Saline counties. The economic basis of the district is mainly agriculture, with some industry. An average of 75 certificated and classified staff serve our 400 +/- PK-12 student population.Tri County Schools has a long tradition of rich academic and activity programs that span from the formation of the district until the present day. The instructional staff, administration, and support staff have a reputation for both low attrition and excellence in their respective fields. Trojan is the mascot of Tri County. The school colors are royal blue and gold.
