Account Creation Consent Form

College Board does not knowingly collect personally identifiable information online from children under 13. College Board obtains parent/guardian consent before establishing an online account for a child under age 13.

To create an online account, College Board needs the following information, including your signature. All the information is required to create the account. Your child will use one online account for all College Board programs, including, for example, SAT®, AP®, Pre-AP®, PSAT/NMSQT®, CLEP®, and BigFuture® activities.

Once the form is complete and signed, email it to accountrequest@collegeboard.org.

Account Creation

A College Board representative will contact you with next steps for establishing your student's account.

Once the account is created, your child will have access to all tools and resources available on the College Board website. In some of these other offerings, additional personal information may be collected about your child. Some of the additional information may include race, ethnicity, and best language. In cases where these questions require an answer, there will be an option to select "Prefer not to answer." Otherwise, your child will be able to skip the question. If you do not want your child to provide any additional personal information, please instruct your child to mark "Prefer not to answer."

Parent/Guardian Consent

By submitting the above personally identifying information about my child and signing this form, I declare under penalty of perjury that I am the parent or lawful guardian of my child and give College Board permission to create and access an online account for my child as described on this form. I further give permission for College Board to process any information about my child that may be provided in connection with any College Board program or service that my child may participate in or use.

Right to Withdraw Consent: By submitting this Account Creation Consent Form, I acknowledge that I have the right to withdraw the above-described consent at any time while my child is under age 13. If I am a resident of a state that gives me certain privacy rights as indicated in College Board's Privacy Center at privacy.collegeboard.org, I may request College Board to delete my child's account by submitting a request for deletion as described in College Board's Privacy Statement at privacy.collegeboard.org/privacy-statement/info-access-data-retention.
