

Randolph County School System “STAR3 Students” for December 2025

Archdale Elementary School – Allison Wilhite

Allison Wilhite consistently demonstrates outstanding character and serves as an excellent role model for her peers. Her integrity and sense of responsibility shine through in everything she does. She treats both students and adults with kindness and respect, and her positive attitude brightens the classroom each day. Dependable and thoughtful, Allison truly embodies what it means to be an outstanding student. She is an all-around wonderful person and a perfect example of everything the Star³ Award represents.

Hopewell Elementary School – Kash Upchurch

Kash has stepped out of his comfort zone this year, both in the classroom and with his peers. He is often one of the first to volunteer to help his teachers or classmates. He eagerly participates in class, contributing thoughtful ideas while showing respect for others. Kash consistently makes responsible choices and is a friend to all. His positive attitude and strong character make him an excellent role model who truly displays Honeybee Pride!

John Lawrence Elementary School – Willow Bowick

Willow Bowick is a wonderful example of what it means to be a STAR³ student! She consistently follows all expectations both in and outside of the classroom. Her kindness toward others and respectful attitude toward staff make her a true leader and role model for her peers. We are so proud of Willow for always showing what it means to be safe, trustworthy, and respectful every day! Congratulations on being the December Star³ Student for JLE!

New Market Elementary School – Avie Puckett

Avie is a shining example of outstanding character, showing kindness and a genuine desire to learn every single day. She consistently puts forth her best effort and approaches each challenge with a positive attitude. Her behavior and work ethic reflect the values we hold dear at New Market. She is an all-around excellent student who leads with heart and determination. She truly shows what it means to be a Bobcat- we are proud to have Avie represent New Market as our Star³ student for December.

Randolph Early College High School – Jacob Link

Jacob is an exceptional student and a dedicated member of the Apprenticeship Randolph program. He works three hours each morning before school and still maintains excellent grades, demonstrating remarkable responsibility and work ethic. Jacob also supports annual recruitment efforts by sharing his Apprenticeship Randolph experience with prospective students and families. He is kind, thoughtful, and compassionate, often checking in on others during difficult times and serving through BETA Club and the Science National Honor Society. Jacob is dependable, mature, and a consistently positive influence within our school community.

Trindale Elementary School – Myles Bouldin

Myles is a resilient 5th grader who has worked hard to overcome challenges and grow in confidence. This year, he has developed a newfound love for school that shines through in his daily attitude. He approaches learning with excitement and a willingness to try his best. His motivation has soared, and he takes pride in his progress and accomplishments. Myles is a wonderful example of perseverance and the power of believing in yourself.

Trinity Elementary School – Haydin Duncan

Trinity Elementary School is proud to recognize Haydin Duncan as our STAR³ Student for December. She is being recognized for consistently demonstrating a strong effort, a cheerful attitude, humble determination, and a commitment to doing her best which makes her shine each day! She shows kindness and leadership in the classroom. She continually looks for ways to lift others up and brighten their day. Thank you Haydin for always exceeding expectations, we are proud of you!

Trinity High School – Alexandria (Ally) Bunting

Ally displays true character and integrity at all times. She is a well-rounded student, participating in student council and an active member on the Girls' Tennis Team. She works hard in the classroom and makes sure that she understands each topic. She is liked by her peers and helps others when necessary. We appreciate Ally's contributions to our Bulldog Nation!

Trinity Middle School – Tristan Ratsavongsack

Tristan is a shining example of hard work, kindness, and school pride! Whether in the classroom or the hallways, he always gives 100% effort and treats everyone with respect. His positive attitude inspires others to do their best and shows what it truly means to have Bulldog spirit. We are so proud to celebrate Tristan's achievements and leadership as our STAR³ Student.

Wheatmore High School – LaNya Townes

Wheatmore High School is proud to announce LaNya Townes as our Star³ student. LaNya is a hardworking student who consistently puts forth her best effort in everything she does. She confidently advocates for herself and for others. Her compassion and empathy make her someone her peers naturally turn to for support. On the volleyball court, she always puts her team before herself, showing true leadership and selflessness. Overall, she is a remarkable young woman whose character and dedication make her an asset to the Wheatmore community. Wheatmore High School is proud to recognize LaNya as Wheatmore's STAR³ student for December.

Wheatmore Middle School – Bowen Freeman

Bowen Freeman is a kind and motivated student who consistently gives his best effort in everything he does. He is conscientious and dependable, always completing assignments with care and attention to detail. His positive attitude, respectful behavior, and strong work ethic makes him a wonderful role model for others in the classroom. It's a pleasure to have such a dedicated and thoughtful student.
