Randolph County School System
"STAR3 Students" for October 2026

Franklinville Elementary School – Sydney Cross

Sydney Cross is a wonderful student who brings kindness, intelligence, and a positive attitude to class every day. She is always willing to help others and eagerly approaches new learning opportunities. She makes thoughtful and positive choices throughout the day and serves as a wonderful role model for her classmates. Her kindness, dedication, and love of learning make her a truly special student. Franklinville Elementary is proud to recognize Sydney as our Star^3 Student.

Grays Chapel Elementary School – Lucious Clapp

Lucious is one of the most hardworking and kind-hearted students you could ever have the pleasure of knowing. He consistently goes above and beyond to assist others in the classroom and makes a genuine effort to ensure that all of his classmates feel heard, valued, and included. In addition to being a wonderful classmate, Lucious is also an active member of the Grays Chapel Student Government Association, where he demonstrates his commitment to leadership and service. Outside of school, Lucious enjoys playing baseball while continuing to maintain wonderful grades in each of his subjects. His dedication, compassion, leadership, and positive attitude make him an outstanding role model for his peers. It is our honor to nominate Lucious Clapp as the Star^3 Student for Grays Chapel. He is truly deserving of this recognition.

Level Cross Elementary School – David Chewning

David is a true STAR student who consistently demonstrates hard work, kindness, and respect toward others. He works diligently to do his best in school and takes pride in being a positive member of our school community. David is always willing to lend a helping hand and looks for ways to support those around him. His involvement in extracurricular activities shows his enthusiasm for being an active and engaged member of our school. We are proud of the wonderful example David sets for others and are honored to recognize him as Level Cross' STAR^3 Student!

Liberty Elementary School – Elena Norris

Liberty Elementary School is proud to recognize Elena Norris as our Star^3 Student for October. Elena is the kind of student and friend that everyone wants to have. She consistently shows up to class ready to listen and learn. Elena is also a wonderful student leader who notices when a classmate may be struggling and is always willing to help them understand an assignment. She is a positive role model to all students and demonstrates daily what it means to be a Liberty Leader.

Northeastern Randolph Middle School – Edelyn Meza Sanchez

Edelyn Meza Sanchez was selected as this month's Star^3 Student from Northeastern Randolph Middle School in recognition of her unwavering dedication to helping those around her. She consistently goes out of her way to support her peers, whether by assisting with classwork or offering an encouraging word to new students in our hallways. Edelyn is an active member of the Northeastern Randolph BETA Club and a media assistant where she strives to set a high example for her peers. Beyond her hard work, her thoughtful nature and deep compassion create a warm, welcoming environment for everyone she meets. Edelyn's positive impact and selfless attitude make her an exceptionally deserving recipient of the Star^3 award.

Providence Grove High School – Eko Dixon

Eko Dixon is a standout leader at PGHS, always quick to step up, support peers, and encourage school involvement. Teachers highlight Eko's dedication and creative versatility—from mastering new instruments to building animatronics. Through leadership, mentorship, and a drive to learn, Eko perfectly embodies the spirit of a Star^3 Student.

Ramseur Elementary School – Maya Peoples

Ramseur Elementary is proud to recognize Maya Peoples as our Star^3 Student for October! She is a well-rounded student who consistently strives to do her absolute best. Whether she’s completing her work, helping a classmate, or showing respect to everyone around her, she shines every single day! Ramseur is delighted to nominate Maya as our STAR^3 Student for October.

Randleman Elementary School – Tadeo Esparza

Tadeo is incredibly kind, sweet, and respectful to everyone around him. He consistently shows respect to all of his teachers and is always willing to listen and learn. He has worked extremely hard to overcome language barriers and continue to make wonderful progress. His determination and positive attitude are evident in the effort he puts into his education each day. We are very proud of his growth and believe he is a wonderful example of kindness, perseverance, and hard work. We are proud to name Tadeo the Randleman Elementary Star^3 student.

Randleman High School – Amelia York

Amelia York is an exceptional student at Randleman High School who demonstrates leadership, maturity, and a strong commitment to academic excellence. She continually challenges herself by taking rigorous courses, including college-level coursework through Randolph Community College, while remaining an active and engaged participant in class. As an FFA reporter, Amelia is a confident and effective public speaker with excellent communication and interview skills, earning the respect of both her teachers and peers. One staff member shared, “She has a maturity that exceeds her age and is someone I trust to get things done,” a reflection of Amelia’s ability to break down tasks, develop a plan, and successfully carry it through. Dependable, motivated, and poised, Amelia is the kind of student every educator dreams of having and a young leader who positively impacts those around her.

Randleman Middle School – Jessica Vansparrentak

Jessica is a hardworking and kind student who consistently gives her best effort. She actively participates in class discussions and shares insightful thoughts. Jessica is a critical thinker who approaches learning with a positive attitude. She is a joy to have in class and serves as a wonderful model for her peers. Her kindness toward everyone and dedication to doing her best make her an outstanding student. Randleman Middle School is proud to recognize Jessica as the October Star^{3} Student.
