Nekia Cromity, Director

The School of Global Studies is a choice program designed for success in college and the 21st century. It has a curriculum that is interdisciplinary, focused on global relationships & multi-tiered.

Why should I be a Global Student?

1. Your involvement in AP classes, beginning as a freshman, prepares you with analytical and study skills that will behoove you at the collegiate level.
2. Cultural and Social events provide access to life skills as well as meeting peers from all grade levels.
3. Leadership in and out of the classroom is encouraged and fostered: Global Council, SGA, Key Club, Interact, etc.
4. Grade and attendance oversight to support you by monitoring your progress so that your GPA is the best possible.
5. Course expectations prepare you for college with time management, research and presentation skills not generally stressed in other classes.
6. Through the CFNC portal, you will keep a college record/resume to help you write those college essays; additionally, you will be able to streamline college choices, career choices, learn about finances, etc.
7. The majority of Morehead and Park
8. Scholars are Global Students.
The School of Global Studies at Terry Sanford is recognized by UNC Chapel Hill.
