

Lassen High School

Title I, Part A School Parent and Family Engagement Policy

Lassen High School, with parents and family members, has jointly developed, mutually agreed upon, and distributed to, parents and family members of participating children in Title I, Part A programs the following requirements as outlined in ESSA sections 1116(b) and (c). Input is received from parents at School Site Council/Parent Advisory (SSC/PAC) and Wellness Committee meetings, and surveys submitted electronically. A draft of the school-level plan is presented to the SSC/PAC for approval. The plan is distributed annually to parents of Title I students in the Student Handbook and new student enrollment packet. It is also posted on the school's website at <http://www.lassenhigh.org>. Lassen High School's Plan describes the means for carrying out the following Title I parental involvement requirements. [Title I Parental Involvement, 20 USC 6318((a)-(f))].

Involvement of Parents in the Title I Program

Lassen High School does the following:

- Convenes an annual meeting to inform parents of Title I students of Title I requirements and their rights to be involved in the Title I Program.

Lassen High School provides a Freshman Orientation and holds an annual Back to School Night where the Title I Program is presented and includes information about Title I activities, as well as information about all programs offered at the school. All parents and family members of participating children shall be invited and encouraged to attend, to inform parents of their school's participation under Title I, Part A and to explain the requirements and the rights of the parents to be involved (ESSA Section 1116[c][1]).

- Offers a flexible number of meetings.
When requested by parents, Lassen High School provides multiple opportunities and flexible meeting times for parents of Title I students.
- Involves parents of Title I students in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning, review*, and improvement of its Title I programs and the Title I parental involvement policy.

The Lassen Union High School District Parent Involvement Policy is reviewed annually and updated as necessary by parents of Title I students at School Site Council (SSC) meetings. The changes, if any, are presented to the Board of Trustees for approval. The School Level Parent Involvement Plan was developed by the School Site Council with input from all parent advisory groups. The Single School Plan for Student Achievement is reviewed and/or revised annually as well. Data pertaining to achievement, attendance, and discipline is presented to the SSC throughout the school year in preparation for the development or revision of the school plan for the next school year. Council members are strongly encouraged to gather feedback from the stakeholders they represent and share information at School Site Council Meetings. The School Level Parent Involvement Plan is an addendum to the Single School Plan for Student Achievement and is approved by the Board of Trustees at a regular board meeting where public comment is welcomed.

- Provides parents of Title I students with timely information about Title I programs.

Title I Program information is included in the parent handbook, on the school website, and discussed at meetings where parents participate such as School Site Council. In addition, the principal provides information to parents through “Facebook Live” and text communications.

- Provides parents of Title I students with an explanation of the curriculum, assessments, and proficiency levels students are expected to meet.

Parent education sessions, which are tailored to specific needs and groups of parents may include training on parent access to our web-based student information system (Aeries) as well as how parents can support their student through distance learning. Additionally, counselors at Lassen Union High School conduct sessions with parents during Freshman Orientation and College Nights and the Student Services Support Specialist meets with parents, as requested and/or as needed.

- Provides parents of Title I students, if requested, with opportunities for regular meetings to participate in decisions relating to the education of their children.

If meetings are requested they are scheduled at convenient times so that parents can participate in decisions relating to the education of their children.

Title I, Plan Revisions/ Amendments

Lassen Union High School District’s parents and family members of participating children in Title I, Part A programs, may amend either the LEA or School Parent and Family Engagement Policy/Plan that applies to all parents and family members, if necessary, to meet the requirements (ESSA Section 1116[b][2]). The School-level Parent Involvement Plan is reviewed annually by the SSC/PAC. In addition, all parents in the district are surveyed annually for input into the LEA and School-level plans and those survey results are presented to the SSC/PAC for use in review and revision of the school’s plan. All parent comments, including unsatisfactory comments, are collected and are included in the survey results. The district’s School Board approves both the LEA Parent Involvement Policy and the School-level Plan at a regular public board meeting each year. (ESSA Section 1116[b][3]) and (ESSA Section 1116[b][4]).

Title I, Part A Reservations for Parent Involvement

Lassen Union High School District reserves funds provided under Title I, Part A, to promote parent involvement by providing incentives for parents to attend school-based parent activities, trainings and meetings. (ESSA Section 1116[c][2])

Timely Information Related to Curriculum and Assessment

Lassen High School provides timely information about the curriculum in use at the school, the forms of academic assessment used to measure student progress, and the achievement levels of the challenging State academic standards. This information is disseminated throughout the year in various ways including the following: Back to School Night and Freshman Orientation meetings, Counselor meetings/trainings with parents, the on-line Aeries Parent Portal, the principal's Facebook Live postings and text messages, as well as through the school's website and teachers' conferences.

Parents are invited to request additional information or have additional meetings, if they so desire. Such requests are responded to as practically possible. (ESSA sections 1116[c][4][A-C].

Lassen High School's Title I, Part A School Parent and Family Engagement Plan/Policy was developed jointly and agreed on with parents and family members of children participating in Title I, Part A programs on May 25, 2021. The School will distribute the Plan/Policy to all parents and family members of participating Title I, Part A students annually on or before September 1 each year.

Cori Shields, CBO

May 27, 2026

Lassen Community Day School

Title I, Part A School Parent and Family Engagement Policy

Lassen Community Day School, with parents and family members, has jointly developed, mutually agreed upon, and distributed to, parents and family members of participating children in Title I, Part A programs the following requirements as outlined in ESSA sections 1116(b) and (c). Input is received from parents at School Site Council/Parent Advisory (SSC/PAC) and Wellness Committee meetings, and surveys submitted electronically. A draft of the school-level plan is presented to the SSC/PAC for approval. The plan is distributed annually to parents of Title I students in the Student Handbook and new student enrollment packet. It is also posted on the school's website at <http://www.lassenhigh.org>. Lassen Community Day School's Plan describes the means for carrying out the following Title I parental involvement requirements. [Title I Parental Involvement, 20 USC 6318((a)-(f)].

Involvement of Parents in the Title I Program

Lassen Community Day School does the following:

- Convenes an annual meeting to inform parents of Title I students of Title I requirements and their rights to be involved in the Title I Program.

Lassen Community Day School provides a Freshman Orientation and holds an annual Back to School Night where the Title I Program is presented and includes information about Title I activities, as well as information about all programs offered at the school. All parents and family members of participating children shall be invited and encouraged to attend, to inform parents of their school's participation under Title I, Part A and to explain the requirements and the rights of the parents to be involved (ESSA Section 1116[c][1]).

- Offers a flexible number of meetings.
When requested by parents, Lassen Community Day School provides multiple opportunities and flexible meeting times for parents of Title I students.
- Involves parents of Title I students in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning, review*, and improvement of its Title I programs and the Title I parental involvement policy.

The Lassen Union High School District Parent Involvement Policy is reviewed annually and updated as necessary by parents of Title I students at School Site Council (SSC) meetings. The changes, if any, are presented to the Board of Trustees for approval. The School Level Parent Involvement Plan was developed by the School Site Council with input from all parent advisory groups. The Single School Plan for Student Achievement is reviewed and/or revised annually as well. Data pertaining to achievement, attendance, and discipline is presented to the SSC throughout the school year in preparation for the development or revision of the school plan for the next school year. Council members are strongly encouraged to gather feedback from the stakeholders they represent and share information at School Site Council Meetings. The School Level Parent Involvement Plan is an addendum to the Single School Plan for Student Achievement and is approved by the Board of Trustees at a regular board meeting where public comment is welcomed.

- Provides parents of Title I students with timely information about Title I programs.

Title I Program information is included in the parent handbook, on the school website, and discussed at meetings where parents participate such as School Site Council. In addition, the principal provides information to parents through “Facebook Live” and text communications.

- Provides parents of Title I students with an explanation of the curriculum, assessments, and proficiency levels students are expected to meet.

Parent education sessions, which are tailored to specific needs and groups of parents may include training on parent access to our web-based student information system (Aeries) as well as how parents can support their student through distance learning. Additionally, counselors at Lassen Union High School conduct sessions with parents during Freshman Orientation and College Nights and the Student Services Support Specialist meets with parents, as requested and/or as needed.

- Provides parents of Title I students, if requested, with opportunities for regular meetings to participate in decisions relating to the education of their children.

If meetings are requested they are scheduled at convenient times so that parents can participate in decisions relating to the education of their children.

Title I, Plan Revisions/ Amendments

Lassen Union High School District’s parents and family members of participating children in Title I, Part A programs, may amend either the LEA or School Parent and Family Engagement Policy/Plan that applies to all parents and family members, if necessary, to meet the requirements (ESSA Section 1116[b][2]). The School-level Parent Involvement Plan is reviewed annually by the SSC/PAC. In addition, all parents in the district are surveyed annually for input into the LEA and School-level plans and those survey results are presented to the SSC/PAC for use in review and revision of the school’s plan. All parent comments, including unsatisfactory comments, are collected and are included in the survey results. The district’s School Board approves both the LEA Parent Involvement Policy and the School-level Plan at a regular public board meeting each year. (ESSA Section 1116[b][3]) and (ESSA Section 1116[b][4]).

Title I, Part A Reservations for Parent Involvement

Lassen Union High School District reserves funds provided under Title I, Part A, to promote parent involvement by providing incentives for parents to attend school-based parent activities, trainings and meetings. (ESSA Section 1116[c][2])

Timely Information Related to Curriculum and Assessment

Lassen Community Day School provides timely information about the curriculum in use at the school, the forms of academic assessment used to measure student progress, and the achievement levels of the challenging State academic standards. This information is disseminated throughout the year in various ways including the following: Back to School Night and Freshman Orientation meetings, Counselor meetings/trainings with parents, the on-line Aeries Parent Portal, the principal's Facebook Live postings and text messages, as well as through the school's website and teachers' conferences.

Parents are invited to request additional information or have additional meetings, if they so desire. Such requests are responded to as practically possible. (ESSA sections 1116[c][4][A-C].

Lassen Community Day School's Title I, Part A School Parent and Family Engagement Plan/Policy was developed jointly and agreed on with parents and family members of children participating in Title I, Part A programs on May 25, 2021. The School will distribute the Plan/Policy to all parents and family members of participating Title I, Part A students annually on or before September 1 each year.

Cori Shields, CBO

May 27, 2026

Credence Continuation School

Title I, Part A School Parent and Family Engagement Policy

Credence Continuation School, with parents and family members, has jointly developed, mutually agreed upon, and distributed to, parents and family members of participating children in Title I, Part A programs the following requirements as outlined in ESSA sections 1116(b) and (c). Input is received from parents at School Site Council/Parent Advisory (SSC/PAC) and Wellness Committee meetings, and surveys submitted electronically. A draft of the school-level plan is presented to the SSC/PAC for approval. The plan is distributed annually to parents of Title I students in the Student Handbook and new student enrollment packet. It is also posted on the school's website at <http://www.lassenhigh.org>. Credence Continuation School's Plan describes the means for carrying out the following Title I parental involvement requirements. [Title I Parental Involvement, 20 USC 6318((a)-(f)].

Involvement of Parents in the Title I Program

Credence Continuation School does the following:

- Convenes an annual meeting to inform parents of Title I students of Title I requirements and their rights to be involved in the Title I Program.

Credence Continuation School provides a Freshman Orientation and holds an annual Back to School Night where the Title I Program is presented and includes information about Title I activities, as well as information about all programs offered at the school. All parents and family members of participating children shall be invited and encouraged to attend, to inform parents of their school's participation under Title I, Part A and to explain the requirements and the rights of the parents to be involved (ESSA Section 1116[c][1]).

- Offers a flexible number of meetings.
When requested by parents, Credence Continuation School provides multiple opportunities and flexible meeting times for parents of Title I students.
- Involves parents of Title I students in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning, review*, and improvement of its Title I programs and the Title I parental involvement policy.

The Lassen Union High School District Parent Involvement Policy is reviewed annually and updated as necessary by parents of Title I students at School Site Council (SSC) meetings. The changes, if any, are presented to the Board of Trustees for approval. The School Level Parent Involvement Plan was developed by the School Site Council with input from all parent advisory groups. The Single School Plan for Student Achievement is reviewed and/or revised annually as well. Data pertaining to achievement, attendance, and discipline is presented to the SSC throughout the school year in preparation for the development or revision of the school plan for the next school year. Council members are strongly encouraged to gather feedback from the stakeholders they represent and share information at School Site Council Meetings. The School Level Parent Involvement Plan is an addendum to the Single School Plan for Student Achievement and is approved by the Board of Trustees at a regular board meeting where public comment is welcomed.

- Provides parents of Title I students with timely information about Title I programs.

Title I Program information is included in the parent handbook, on the school website, and discussed at meetings where parents participate such as School Site Council. In addition, the principal provides information to parents through “Facebook Live” and text communications.

- Provides parents of Title I students with an explanation of the curriculum, assessments, and proficiency levels students are expected to meet.

Parent education sessions, which are tailored to specific needs and groups of parents may include training on parent access to our web-based student information system (Aeries) as well as how parents can support their student through distance learning. Additionally, counselors at Lassen Union High School conduct sessions with parents during Freshman Orientation and College Nights and the Student Services Support Specialist meets with parents, as requested and/or as needed.

- Provides parents of Title I students, if requested, with opportunities for regular meetings to participate in decisions relating to the education of their children.

If meetings are requested they are scheduled at convenient times so that parents can participate in decisions relating to the education of their children.

Title I, Plan Revisions/ Amendments

Lassen Union High School District’s parents and family members of participating children in Title I, Part A programs, may amend either the LEA or School Parent and Family Engagement Policy/Plan that applies to all parents and family members, if necessary, to meet the requirements (ESSA Section 1116[b][2]). The School-level Parent Involvement Plan is reviewed annually by the SSC/PAC. In addition, all parents in the district are surveyed annually for input into the LEA and School-level plans and those survey results are presented to the SSC/PAC for use in review and revision of the school’s plan. All parent comments, including unsatisfactory comments, are collected and are included in the survey results. The district’s School Board approves both the LEA Parent Involvement Policy and the School-level Plan at a regular public board meeting each year. (ESSA Section 1116[b][3]) and (ESSA Section 1116[b][4]).

Title I, Part A Reservations for Parent Involvement

Lassen Union High School District reserves funds provided under Title I, Part A, to promote parent involvement by providing incentives for parents to attend school-based parent activities, trainings and meetings. (ESSA Section 1116[c][2])

Timely Information Related to Curriculum and Assessment

Credence Continuation School provides timely information about the curriculum in use at the school, the forms of academic assessment used to measure student progress, and the achievement levels of the challenging State academic standards. This information is disseminated throughout the year in various ways including the following: Back to School Night and Freshman Orientation meetings, Counselor meetings/trainings with parents, the on-line Aeries Parent Portal, the principal's Facebook Live postings and text messages, as well as through the school's website and teachers' conferences.

Parents are invited to request additional information or have additional meetings, if they so desire. Such requests are responded to as practically possible. (ESSA sections 1116[c][4][A-C].

Credence Continuation School's Title I, Part A School Parent and Family Engagement Plan/Policy was developed jointly and agreed on with parents and family members of children participating in Title I, Part A programs on May 25, 2021. The School will distribute the Plan/Policy to all parents and family members of participating Title I, Part A students annually on or before September 1 each year.

Cori Shields, CBO

May 27, 2026