Pay Structure: Contract employees are typically paid based on the terms of their contract. The pay is divided over the length of the contract or distributed evenly across 24 pay periods. This will vary depending on employee payroll elections each year.

Purpose of Payroll Schedule: The payroll schedule serves to illustrate the timing in which various categories of workers, including hourly employees, substitutes, stipend recipients, and those involved in extra contract or extracurricular activities are to be paid.

Indication of Payment Dates: The dates listed above correspond to when these items will be paid during each pay period.
