A MESSAGE FROM THE SUPERINTENDENT

In the 2024-25 school year, our accomplishments as a community and a district set us apart. As a community, we hold firmly to our rural character, a practical approach to how we do our work, and a shared responsibility for our young people.

All three of our schools received statewide recognition this year. For the second year in a row, Hockinson School District outperformed Clark County and state average standardized test scores. Enrollment in college and job-readiness courses have almost doubled since 2021-22.

The HSD remains committed to using our resources efficiently and carefully. We continue our stretch every dollar, pursue grant funding when available, and plan thoughtfully for both current and future needs. We look forward to working together to support students and strengthen our schools as we carry forward Hockinson's 156-year tradition of excellence in public education.

Thank you to our students, staff, families, and community members for your continued support and involvement. The approval of our SP&O levy this February shows our community's continued support for programs that enrich student learning and school experiences, carrying forward Hockinson's 156-year tradition of excellence in public education.

We look forward to continuing this work together in the year ahead.

Sincerely,
Steve Marshall, Superintendent

SCHOOL FACILITIES

Through years of hard work and collaboration, the Hockinson community has supported generations of successful, responsible young people while making careful, practical decisions about how resources are used. Hockinson School District makes it a priority to stretch every dollar and pursue grant funding to support student and school facility needs.

School facilities play an important role in supporting student learning and safety. The district regularly evaluates its buildings based on enrollment, safety standards, and long-term maintenance needs to ensure facilities remain functional and safe.

Local SP&O levy dollars help fund routine maintenance, safety improvements, and technology replacement that are not fully funded by the state. Facility planning is guided by data and community input, with a focus on responsible use of resources and long-term sustainability.

- Hockinson Heights Elementary School: Built in 1968
- Hockinson Middle School: Built in 2017
- Hockinson High School: Built in 2003

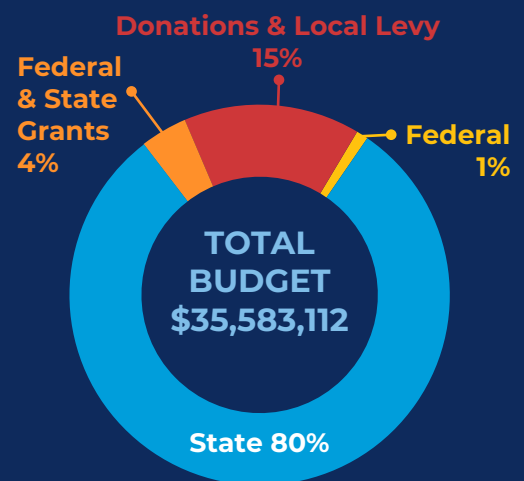

ONGOING PRIORITIES

- Collaborate with Hockinson community members to find a solution to overcrowding at Hockinson Heights Elementary School, a campus with 924 students enrolled and 24 portable classrooms.
- Prioritize modern safety improvements, like secure entrances and lockdown capabilities all Hockinson schools.
- Continue routine facility maintenance and technology replacement cycles with local SP&O levy dollars.
