Math Society
Sponsor: Michael Gahan
Math Society is open to all students who love math. We explore the fun aspects of mathematics and its real-world applications. We also participate in math related competitions, including Math League and Math Madness, and connect with businesses and organizations to explore math related careers. The Math Society meets every Wednesday at 6:50am in Room 201.

Mock Trial
Sponsor: Thomas Berquam
A club that practices Mock Trial and attends competitions. Mock Trial is a simulated lower court chance for students to practice what it would be like to be an attorney in civil or criminal cases. TBD. See Mr. Berquam for more details.

National Honor Society
Sponsors: Ryan Bailey & Emily Fox
NHS creates enthusiasm for scholarship, a desire to serve, promotes leadership and develops character. Membership selection is by a Faculty Council and is based on scholarship, character, leadership and service. Members are responsible for continuing to demonstrate these qualities. To be eligible the candidate must have attended CeHS for a minimum of one semester and be a sophomore or junior. A Class Rank Index (CRI) of 3.7 or higher is required to be considered for membership. NHS officers meet every Tuesday at 6:45am in room 206. Members meet 1st Wednesday of the month at 6:45am in Room 500.

Newspaper
Sponsor: Todd Wolff
Newspaper Club is open to all students. The club participates in activities that foster the development and production of The Coyote Chronicle, the student newspaper which is distributed four times each semester. Students will research, write and edit various news stories, and then have their work printed for the community to read. Students will also gain experience writing for our Newspaper's online publication, The Coyote Chronicle Online. Newspaper meets daily in Room 414, during third period.

PSBN (Peoria Student Broadcasting Network)
Sponsor: Donald Seago
PSBN, the Peoria Student Broadcasting Network, is a unique Peoria Unified program that gives students the opportunity to be hands on in the field of live broadcasting. PSBN students from across the district work to produce and stream a variety of sports, arts, and news content to a worldwide audience. Students involved in Centennial PSBN play a vital role in broadcasting school events to the community while learning professional level skills. Centennial PSBN is open to students who are enrolled, or have been enrolled, in TV and film. They meet on Thursdays at 2:30pm in Room 623.

Renaissance Club
Sponsor: Roxane Winston
The Renaissance Club strives to make sure every student on campus feels connected to Centennial! It's open to all students who want to focus on climate, culture, and representing every Coyote. We recognize students and staff throughout Centennial and spread Coyote Pride campus-wide! Renaissance meets on the 1st Tuesday of every month at 2:30pm in Room 637.

SEA Club (Science and Environmental Awareness)
Sponsors: Shelly Petersen
Open to all, who love science, the SEA Club promotes recycling and ecology on campus, plans trips and activities related to the different areas of science, such as Biology, Astronomy, Physics and Chemistry. The club competes in the AZ Envirothon. Every other year, the group travels to Catalina Island to study marine biology. SEA Club meets every Monday at 2:30pm in Room 224.

SkillsUSA
Sponsor: Joe Steele, Reyes Ruiz, Eric Sanchez, Jodi Berquam
SkillsUSA is a Career and Technical Student Organization (CTSO) attached to the CeHS engineering, automotive, construction, and law programs. The club's mission is to empower students to become skilled professionals, career-ready leaders, and responsible community members. SkillsUSA develops students' leadership abilities through participation in educational, vocational, civic, recreational, and social activities. Regional and state competitions which can lead to national competitions in the summer. SkillsUSA meets every Tuesday at 2:30pm in Room 704.

Speech and Debate Team
Sponsor: Jeff Leavitt
Speech and Debate connects, supports and inspires a diverse community of empowered students through competitive speaking and debating events. Team members are challenged to foster their communication, collaboration, critical thinking, and creative skills in local, state, regional and national tournaments. Speech and Debate prepares students for the real challenges of tomorrow. The Speech and Debate Team meets on Tuesdays at 2:30pm, Mondays and Thursdays are open practice days.

Sports Medicine Club
Sponsor: Tyler Sullivan and Sarah Nowak
Current and former Sports Medicine students interested in athletic and medical professions gain real-world experience through live, on-site medical evaluations, daily routines, and emergency responses. Students learn skills and routines necessary for athletic training and leave high school better-able to make decisions about which paths to pursue in college. Interested students should sign up for Intro to Sports Medicine and other health-related courses. Sports Medicine meets every Friday at 3:00pm in the Athletic Training Room.

Student Council
Sponsor: Jodi Berquam
Student Council is a leadership class into which all members must be elected in order to participate. Student Council plans activities such as homecoming week, assemblies, spirit day, club week, community service projects, elections, teacher appreciation and student appreciation. Elections are held in the Spring for the following year for upperclassmen. Freshmen elections take place in the fall.

Tabletop Gaming Club
Sponsor: Dennis White
TTGC is a student-run organization with interests that span—though are not limited to—paper-and-pencil role-playing games, collectible card games, and board games of all kinds. The club fosters a welcoming and supportive social environment where students can engage in mentally stimulating activities that encourage creative problem-solving. TTGC also empowers its members to build lasting relationships through shared experiences and collaborative play. Tabletop Gaming Club meets on Tuesdays at 3:00pm in the Community Corner.

Yearbook Club
Sponsor: Tom Butler
Centennial is full of Coyote Pride! If you have a passion for CeHS, then join the Yearbook Club where you have the ability to showcase your love for Centennial through graphic design and publication. To join, you need to either take Photo I, Journalism or have an English teacher recommendation. Yearbook Club occurs daily during third period in room 416.

CLUBS AND ACTIVITIES

Check Out Our Clubs' Websites:
https://www.peoriaunified.org/o/centennial/page/cehs-clubs

Animation Studio
Sponsor: Donald Seago
Do you enjoy animating or are interested in learning more about it? Do you want to work with other animators, discuss ideas, and get helpful feedback? The Centennial Animation Studio (CeA Studio) is the place. Anyone, of any level, is welcome. We meet on Fridays from 2:30pm in Room 623

Anime Society
Sponsor: Christina Goodrich
All are welcome to our safe place to socialize and share common interest in all things Anime. The Anime Society meets on Thursdays at 2:30pm in 219.

Art Club
Sponsor: Chris Buhrmann
You don't have to be innately talented in any way, shape or form to become a member. Joining will open many doors, including meeting new people, gaining new experiences and having lots of fun. Art Club meets on Thursday after school in Room 626B.

Band and Color Guard
Sponsor: Kate Menasco
Open to any student enrolled in a band ensemble (Concert, Jazz, Marching) during the school year. The Band Council meets weekly to discuss ways to help our ensembles grow and excel. Members are encouraged to develop their knowledge of music in many different areas, including music composition, performance and music theory. Color Guard is an auxiliary performance component of the marching band. Students learn flag line technique and movement and have a great deal of fun. Interested students should attend the mandatory clinic/audition in April. Students who make the team will be registered for Varsity Marching Band in the fall semester. Band holds official meetings on Tuesdays at 5:30pm, in the Green Room.

Black Student Union
Sponsor: Roxane Winston
Black Student Union invites all students on campus to help educate this generation about the African American culture, its struggle, and its achievements. This club will host numerous activities during Black History Month. It is a great way to make connections with your peers and to have a positive impact on Centennial. The Black Student Union meets every Thursday at 2:30pm in Room 637.

Book & Movie Club
Sponsor: Mr. Jefferson Leavitt
The Book and Movie Club brings people together through a shared love of reading and cinema, fostering a sense of community where we discuss books, movies, and culture. Students come together to expand their reading and moving watching horizons. The Book and Movie Club meets every other Thursday at 2:30pm in Room 313.

Chess Club
Sponsor: Tracey Cota
The Chess Club serves to teach and challenge new and existing chess players. If you want to play chess and get challenged playing experienced and inexperienced players, join chess club! The Chess club meets every Monday at 2:30pm in Room 226.

Chorus Club
Sponsor: Cheryl Tucker
Open to any student participating in a choir class, including members of our after-school ensembles. Led by the choir council, this club meets regularly to discuss recruitment, field trips, and fundraisers; to plan activities, help with concerts, and discuss ways to increase awareness and appreciation of vocal music. The Chorus club meets in room 856. Schedule is TBD. See Mrs. Tucker for more details.

Christ Centered Coyotes
Sponsor: J.C. Davault
A club that provides a place for students to gather and grow in their relationship with God through worship, prayer and fellowship with other students. The CCC meets every Tuesday at 6:00pm in the Community Corner, by the Snack Bar.

Club America
Sponsor: Andrew Laue
Club America is a student-led club that serves to empower the patriotic leaders of tomorrow. Students who participate in Club America will be empowered to build strong networks, spearhead impactful initiatives, help students register to vote, and inspire meaningful conversations about the foundations of a free society. We do this by: Providing space for students to learn about and discuss current events, civic responsibility, and constitutional principles. Encouraging active participation in the democratic process through non-partisan civic education. Developing leadership, public speaking, and organizational skills among student members. Fostering a culture of respectful debate, where multiple viewpoints can be expressed and understood. Connect students with larger events, conferences, and leadership opportunities. TBD. See Mr. Laue for more details.

Coyote Connections
Sponsor: Savana Newton
Peer Counselors provide mentoring to their peers. Peer counselors seek Coyote Connections is a student-led club dedicated to planning engaging events, building strong relationships, and helping students feel connected and supported within our school community. We meet every other Monday at 3:00pm in the Counseling office.

Coyote Imprint Yearbook Club
Sponsor: Tom Butler
Centennial is full of Coyote Pride! If you have a passion for CeHS, then join the Yearbook Club where you have the ability to showcase your love for Centennial through graphic design and publication. To join, you need to either take Photo I, Journalism or have an English teacher recommendation. Yearbook Club occurs daily during third period in Room 416.

Coyote Mat Pack
Sponsor: Julia Santistevan and Abby Thiele
A support organization for the wrestling program: students involved will attend wrestling matches and tournaments as scorekeepers, timers and event managers. The Mat Pack meets every Tuesday at 3:00pm in Room 601.

Creative Writing Club
Sponsor: Todd Wolff
This club brings together students of all writing abilities in a collaborative workspace for members to write, share ideas, and provide feedback for each other's work. Students get to share their writing, listen to other's stories, and learn about writing creatively. The Creative Writing club meets every Tuesday at 2:30pm, in Room 414.

Culinary Club—FCCLA
Sponsor: Ashley Kinnaman
Our FCCLA Culinary club is a dynamic student organization that promotes personal growth, leadership, and career preparation through Family and Consumer Sciences education. Culinary students attend training sessions, leadership conferences, and engage in service and fundraising projects that reflect the values of its members. Students may complete culinary courses and work through the FCCLA Culinary club to earn a CTE Program Endorsement on their high school graduation diploma. Culinary Club meets every Monday at 2:30pm in Room 608.

Culture Club
Sponsors: Stephanie Edgerton
Culture club is open to all students interested in fostering global awareness and understanding other cultures. We raise positive awareness, celebrate, and learn about the cultures represented on Centennial's campus and beyond. The club works to promote and appreciate diverse cultures through different celebrations, foods, art and awareness activities. Culture Club meets every other Monday at 2:30pm in Room 215.

Dance Club
Sponsors: Sarah Garrigan
Open to students currently enrolled in any dance class during the current school year. The club meets during the Performance Dance class in the Dance Room at 10:30am as needed.

DECA
Sponsor: Kevin McCausland
DECA emphasizes free enterprise, supporting students' marketing/management skills in careers such as hospitality, finance, sales/service, sports and entertainment, international business, business administration and entrepreneurship. Members have fun, develop leadership skills, learn technical communication and employability skills, and improve interpersonally. The club travels to conferences around the state and country. Build your self-esteem and resume for scholarships, practice community service, and experience teamwork in an exciting environment! We meet every 2nd and 4th Monday at 2:30pm, in Room 500 or in Room 624.

Drama Club & International Thespian Society
Sponsor: Laura Colletti
Open to any student interested in theatre arts, offers the opportunity to learn about the theatre on and offstage. Members participate in after-school performances, workshops, and field trips. International Thespian Society is an honorary drama group available to dedicated Drama Club members who accumulate an equivalent of 100 working hours on-stage and backstage in theatre-related performances. Drama Club meets on every other Thursday at 2:30pm in Room 864 or on the stage.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA)
Sponsor: Billy Carter
Brings coaches and athletes together to use the powerful medium of athletics to impact the world for Jesus Christ. An interdenominational, school based Christian sports organization. FCA focuses on serving local communities by equipping, empowering and encouraging people to make a difference for Christ. Members will demonstrate steadfast commitment of integrity, serving, teamwork and excellence. FCA meets every Thursday at 6:50am in Room 203.

French Club
Sponsor: Tressa Rappold
The Centennial French Club is a great group of students who enjoy learning about places around the world where French is spoken. We watch movies, listen to music, play games, enjoy food, and more. The club loves to participate in Centennial traditions such as the Homecoming carnival and parade and Adopt-a-Family. French Club is an opportunity for camaraderie, leadership, fun, and learning. All are welcome whether or not you are studying French. The French club meets every Tuesday at 2:30pm in Room 1201.

Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA)
Sponsors: Mylynda Koener, Mrs. Cota, Mr. Laue, and Mr. Seago
FBLA gives students the opportunity to learn about the business and media industries as they prepare to become a part of it. As team members of Centennial's student-led tee shirt company Coyote Threads and Centennial's student broadcast team PSBN (Peoria Student Broadcasting Network), students use these skills in real-world consequential production schedules to produce and promote as student professionals. FBLA provides opportunities for students to lead and participate in group discussions, preside at meetings and conferences, work effectively within committees, and engage in practical problem solving and decision making. Projects include professional, civic service, career development, and social awareness activities. Local, regional, and national competitions are held each year providing countless opportunities for resume building through earning awards in competitions and scholarships for participation. FBLA meets on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of the month at 2:30pm in Room 625.

Future Educators—FCCLA
Sponsors: Roxane Winston and Emily Rivera
FCCLA Educators is for students interested in entering the field of education. Students participate in fundraisers, community service, attend leadership conferences, and compete in education-related experiences to potentially earn scholarship money. To participate in this club, students must have taken Child Development, EdProfessions, COOP, or be currently enrolled in one of those courses. One year minimum participation required in order to earn your Mastery of Subject medallion for EdProfessions or Early Childhood Education. FCCLA meets every other Tuesday at 2:30pm in Room 637.

Health Occupations Students of America (HOSA)
Sponsor: Barb Parrish, Tyler Sullivan and D.J. Youngerman
HOSA invites all medically minded students to join. Students are highly engaged in promoting and participating in community wellness. Activities include learning leadership, blood drives, fundraising for various Disease research, adopting a local assisted living community for the holidays, exploring medical professions (with guest speakers and off-site presentations), studying and competing in a medical event of choice. HOSA meets every Thursday at 2:30pm in Room 700.

Hip Hop Club
Sponsors: Sahvanna Thompson
Enjoy hip hop dancing and meeting new people? Join Centennial's Hip Hop Club. It is a great way for those interested in Hip Hop dance to learn about the culture and interact with students who share the same passion. Come check us out! The Hip Hop Club meets every Thursday at 2:30pm in the Dance Room.

Japanese Club
Sponsor: Becky Cothren
Yōkoso! Centennial High School Japanese Club welcomes all students taking Japanese classes and/or just interested in learning about "all things Japanese". Officers meet every 1st and 3rd Tuesday mornings and Members meet every 2nd and 4th Tuesday mornings at 6:50 a.m. in room 505. It's a great place to meet and socialize with your peers who enjoy learning the Japanese language and participating in field trips and cultural activities both on and off campus. The Japanese Club meets the 4th Thursday of the month at 2:30pm in room 505.

K-POP Club
Sponsor: Priscilla Glick
K_POP Club provides a supportive environment where CeHS students can expand their cultural knowledge of Korea, celebrate art and music, bond through mutual interest, foster love of the arts and engage in games and activities. The K-POP Club meets every Mondays at 2:30 in room 200.