Course Selection Frequently Asked Questions

Q. How likely will I get my top elective?
A. It is completely random, depending on how many students also requested the class as well as if it fits in your schedule.

Q. Who will my teacher be, and What period will I have my class?
A. The master schedule will determine both. Students will be made aware of their schedules during "Return to the Nest" at the end of July.

Q. How do I get a TA/Home/IA/internship period?
A. Student must be on track to graduate, be completing a CTE program or a fine arts seal and be completing two Spanish credits and have a 2.0 GPA. Current juniors may apply, and the application process will be held later in the spring semester.

Q. How do I get/not get Athletic Performance next year?
A. The counselors are given lists of students who should have Athletic Performance by the coaches. Students wishing not to take this class, please have a conversation with your coach before the end of March. The coach must email the counselor.

Q. Can I get out of Future Ready?
A. No, Future Ready is a is a prescribed elective that all juniors take.

Q. How do I make up credits?
A. Please talk to your counselor about your options for credit deficiency or credit recovery, such as Summer School

Q. I have completed my 4th math, do I have to take a 5th math class?
(College Prep Algebra, College Algebra Honors or Intro to Statistics)
A. Please talk with your current Math teacher if you do not want to continue with math courses. The teacher will need to email the counselor.

Q. When is course selection due?
A. English classes will come down to the LLH February 9-20, your English teacher will know the date. Students with IEPs will be meeting with their service coordinator and a school counselor during the week of January 26.

Q. How many PE classes can I take in a year?
A. Two, one for each semester. However, it is preferred for students to complete two credits of a world language, at least one CTE sequence, or courses towards a Fine Arts Seal before taking multiple PE classes.

Q. Does Dance, ROTC or Marching Band count as a PE Credit?

A. Only the second time you take a class in a series.

Q. Can seniors start on the Auto track?
A. Seniors cannot take Auto I. Sophomores who have not started Auto and want to take it need to select it as their top choice for junior year.

Q. Can seniors take level one of a CTE program?
A. Seniors signing up for a level one (I) CTE must take the level two (II).

Q. When I get my schedule, can I change my lunch or rearrange my schedule?
A. Unfortunately, no. Due to scheduling constraints and class balancing, counselors cannot make lunch or period changes.
