Complaint Procedure
Gervais School District promotes nondiscrimination and an environment free of harassment based on an individual's race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, marital status, age, or disability.

Any person who feels he/she has been discriminated against should discuss the matter with the principal who shall in turn investigate the complaint. If the person making the complaint finds the response unacceptable, he/she may file a written complaint and may follow an appeals process that is outlined on our website at: www.gervais.k12.or.us in policy KL Public Complaints.
