Item 7-City Administrator Report

Administrator Calvert said the 2022-23 budget was presented and approved. He thanked Mayor Woods and Mandy K. Hess for their hard work on putting it together. The work has been in progress since early January. The meter installation is still on hold, as of now we do not have an estimated ETA. The Rosewood roof is scheduled for repair this month. State funding has been attained to replace the gym floor. Additionally, the staff at City Hall have been moved to the back of the building which will make the entrance more handicap accessible as well as safer for the staff. He also said the roof in Sarlin Park will eventually need replacement. The city is working with Meridian to get the trash service transitioned smoothly. Administrator Calvert reviewed the financial reports for Mayor and council.
