Hello PCRHS Families,

We hope everyone had a great week!

Below you'll find important details for the coming weeks, including updated plans for Wednesday, February 25. Due to the lack of snow this year, we will not be holding the annual snow science trip. Instead, we're excited to host a "Day of the Arts" for our students.

Please take a moment to review the information below carefully, as this new trip will include a unique earlier start time and earlier dismissal to accommodate the schedule.

Thank you for your continued support! Have a great 3-day weekend!

Brian Smith, Principal
Paradise Creek Regional High School
