Hello PCRHS Families,

We hope everyone had a great week!

Today marked the first academic cutoff for Quarter 3. Assignments given prior to today will no longer be accepted. Please continue checking PowerSchool regularly for grade updates. Staff will also be sending letters to families of students who may be at risk of not passing a course. These letters will include teacher feedback and suggestions for improving grades.

Next Wednesday, February 25 is our Day of the Arts! Please note the details below, including the earlier start time and earlier dismissal. It should be a fun a ton of fun!

Have a wonderful weekend!

Brian Smith, Principal
Paradise Creek Regional High School
