Other Business:

- All donations presented were accepted and appreciated.
- All facilities requests presented were approved.
- The Northumberland County School Board recommends that the school nutrition budget be passed onto the Northumberland County Board of Supervisors based upon anticipated revenue only without carryover funds where anticipated revenue is $750,000. Discussion was centered around the internal audit status that has been approved previously by both boards.
- The Northumberland Booster club presented a donation from community members and The Wiley Foundation Grant. This $53,000 is to assist with the cost of the NES playground.
- The Northumberland County School Board is requesting a meeting with the Northumberland County Board of Supervisors for a state of the school finances one year debriefing, with a potential closed session for related personnel issues. The meeting was requested during the period of July 6th-9th, 2006.
- The Northumberland County School Board accepts the summer nutrition proposal and forwards that motion to the Northumberland Board of Supervisors for approval.
