CHANGE IN ATTENDANCE STATE LAW

Section 4 Circumstances of Absences The circumstances for all absences from school will be identified as either "School Excused" or "Not School Excused."

A School Excused absence includes circumstances where impossible or impracticable barriers outside the control of the parent or child prevent attendance, including documented physical illness, mental illness, court appearances, death in the family, suspension, or other circumstances approved by the administration.

A Not School Excused absence includes absences for vacations, personal events, or other circumstances that do not qualify as School Excused absences. Excessive absenteeism and truancy will be addressed in accordance with Nebraska law and Board Policy 5008. Reporting Excessive Absenteeism to the County Attorney.
