COMMUNICATION AND INFORMATION

Student Body President Ava Cragan and Secretary Bella Kolzak, representing the Wallace Jr/Sr High School Student Council, provided a report on their attendance at the State Student Council Conference in Moscow, Idaho. They noted that Wallace Jr/Sr High School was recognized with the Outstanding Student Council Award based on documented participation in statewide service activities and the submission of a comprehensive slide show highlighting student-led events. Ava and Bella summarized key leadership takeaways from breakout sessions and keynote speakers, including strategies for effective public speaking, presentation preparation, stress management, and resilience. They also shared ideas to enhance school morale, such as implementing Monday morning "welcome tunnels" to promote a positive school climate.

There being no further business, a motion was made by Molly McGee, seconded by Amber Valley and unanimously passed to adjourn the meeting at 6:44 PM.
