8. Public Comment

The Naselle-Grays River Valley School Board values input from our community and welcomes comments on school-related topics. Each speaker will have up to three (3) minutes to share their comments, and the Board President will respectfully end the comment period once the allotted time has expired. Please begin by stating your name for the record. All comments should be directed to the Board as a whole, not to individual members or staff. The Board will listen respectfully but will not respond to questions or engage in discussion during the meeting. If a response or follow-up is needed, the Superintendent or a designee will contact you after the meeting.
