

STEAM

At Talley, STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, and Mathematics) provides students with hands-on opportunities to think critically, solve problems creatively, and collaborate with others. Through engaging, real-world experiences, students develop the skills needed to become future-ready learners and leaders.

