During back to school it may take some time for your contact information to be processed into the Rooms system.

- If you did not receive an invitation text or email, that means either you have already logged into Rooms or your contact data is still being processed for our new system.*

- You will receive an initial invitation through a text at the phone number or an email at the email address you entered into your child's Skyward profile.*

- If you have not received an invitation and try to login, you will likely not receive an authentication code due to this same issue. We apologize for the delay. You will receive an authentication code soon.*

5 You will scroll and agree to the terms of use and save your primary language you prefer to use while communicating in Rooms.
