SECAUCUS BOARD OF EDUCATION APPOINTS DR. MARK TOBACK AS INTERIM SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

Secaucus, NJ – September 23, 2025 – The Secaucus Board of Education has appointed Dr. Mark Toback as Interim Superintendent of Schools, effective October 1st. Dr. Toback recently concluded a distinguished tenure as Superintendent of the Wayne Township Public Schools, where he served for more than a decade before retiring earlier this year.

Dr. Toback brings extensive experience in public education leadership, with a professional career spanning more than three decades. His expertise includes team building, school finance, curriculum development, organizational management, and community engagement. Under his leadership in Wayne Township, the district achieved numerous academic and operational milestones and was consistently recognized for excellence in academic performance, financial management, and compliance.

"The Board is confident that Dr. Toback's proven record of leadership and his commitment to public education will provide stability and continuity for the Secaucus Public Schools," said Kelli D'Addetta, President of the Secaucus Board of Education. "We look forward to working with him as we continue our search for a permanent superintendent." Dr. Toback stated, "I am honored to join the Secaucus Public Schools and to serve the students, families, staff, and the broader community during this important time. I look forward to collaborating with all stakeholders to sustain and enhance the district's tradition of academic excellence and student success and to provide stability during this time of transition."

About Dr. Mark Toback

Dr. Toback earned his Doctor of Education degree from Rutgers University and holds multiple advanced degrees in educational leadership. Over the course of his career, he has served as Superintendent of Schools in Wayne Township, Hoboken, and Sussex County Technical School. He has been recognized for his expertise in school finance and change management, and the districts under his leadership have earned state and national recognition for academic excellence and sound fiscal practices. Dr. Toback will provide experienced leadership to ensure the district maintains its focus on high-quality education and continuous improvement throughout the transition.
