Friday Late Starts

Students will begin school at 9:00 a.m. on Fridays, while all staff report at their regular contracted time. This structure provides a consistent, protected hour each week for teachers and staff to meet required instructional, collaboration, and accountability expectations.

Purpose

The Friday late start creates dedicated time to complete essential work that directly supports student learning.

- KESA (School Improvement) planning and implementation
- MTSS meetings and progress monitoring
- District Leadership Team (DLT) and Professional Development Committee (PDC)
- PK–12 team meetings and vertical curriculum alignment
- Curriculum training and professional learning
- Review of student data to evaluate progress and adjust instructional practices.
- PK–12 staff communication and collaboration.
- Provide teachers and staff with sustainable time to meet increasing professional expectations.

Family and Student Considerations for Friday Late Starts

To ensure this schedule adjustment does not create a burden for families:

- Students may be dropped off at the regular time (7:30 a.m.) on Fridays or wait until closer to the start of school (9am)
- Breakfast will be served from 7:45am-8:55am to account for early arrivers (School starts at 9am)
- Bus routes will operate on their regular schedules.
- Support staff will supervise students who arrive prior to 9:00 a.m. Students will be grouped by age groups for Friday morning supervision.
