

NORGAARD SCHOLARSHIP

The Norgaard Scholarship is a grant given to deserving graduating seniors of Dayton High School. This scholarship is presented in honor of Floyd L. and Eugenia Darnell Norgaard.

The purpose of this scholarship is to reward those students who exhibit outstanding achievement while in high school and to promote future academic endeavors at an approved college, university, or trade school. The grant will be for one year only; but can be renewed annually as described below.

Method of Selection:

The selection of the recipient(s) of this scholarship shall be made by a committee composed of the Norgaard trustees. The trustee committee is made up of one teacher, two school board members, one person from the community, and the superintendent of schools. The trustees will determine the number of recipients and the amount of each grant.

Selection Criteria -- All of the following will be weighed equally:

1. Citizenship
2. Scholarship
3. Integrity
4. Activities
5. Future Educational Plans

Students who indicate that they will be pursuing a career in some area of vocational education--agriculture, business, home economics--will be given careful consideration.

Application Procedure:

Members of the senior class interested in making application for this scholarship will follow the instructions as indicated (#5 is optional).

1. Letter of application, including future educational plans.
2. Resume' of activities and interests.
3. High school principal's rating sheet.
4. Rating sheets from two teachers.
5. Brief recommendation from Columbia County Citizens (not to exceed two).
