Word of the Week

Luminous: Adjective. Meaning bright or brilliant.
Let’s have a luminous fourth quarter!

Weekly Staff Recognition

Wanda Goodwin

This weeks staff recognition goes to Mrs. Wanda Goodwin for her dedication to her classroom and to her students. She is an amazing English teacher here at Mahnomen High School. We truly appreciate the time and work she puts into teaching her students and helping them succeed. Wanda is a very creative writer and she also has a passion for novels. She continuously shares life lessons throughout the stories that she shares in her classroom. Thank you for all the time and commitment you give to students here at Mahnomen High School!

Senior Spotlight

Alyssa Hisgun

Alyssa is a part of Student Council. She enjoys seeing her friends everyday at school and has made many memories here at Mahnomen High School that she will carry with her after graduation. Alyssa's plan after graduation is to work in childcare. She loves children and wants to eventually open her own daycare.

Abdiel Torrez-Basilio

After High School he wants to achieve all his goals. Abdiel is from Mexico and his background has taught him the importance of working hard and never giving up. He would like to travel and see the world to learn about different places and cultures. He also wants to keep working and saving money. One of his biggest goals is to have his own farm someday, where he can take care of large animals like horses and cows. He wants to learn more about agriculture and animal care, so he can build a good life of success.
