

FMS FALCON FOCUS

WEEK: APR 6 – APR 10

SCHOOL REMINDERS

- NEW FLC Members – On Tuesday at 7:30am, there is a meeting in Mrs. Crew's room. Dropoff is at the back of the school at the gym.
- NEW Current 6th and 7th graders – want to join Future Leader for Change? See this flyer! Applications are due on 4/24. Link to the Application and Teacher Recommendation.
- NEW Mrs. Doub (Art) is looking for donations of scrapbook paper, patterned tissue paper and junk drawer items like empty spools of thread, or small items that could be made into something else. Items can be dropped off at the office.
- Students should not be dropped off at the traffic circle between the high school and middle school. If you are dropping off your middle school student via car, they should be brought off in the front of FMS.
- On Friday, April 17th, Junior Historians will be attending the THJHA Conference in Winston. Please get your permission slip in ASAP!
- On Wednesday, April 29th, 7th grade will be taking a field trip. The cost is $5.00 and the permission slip is available online or on paper and due 4/14!
- 8th Grade Parents: Here is a link to the presentation FHS had from their canceled Rising Freshman night. Questions? Reach out to FHS.
- We kindly ask that no pets are on our campus, including athletic and extracurricular events, unless a service animal, per YCS Policy 4203/7273.
- 8th Grade Promotion flyer and details are in this newsletter!
- Wake Forest Institute for Regenerative Medicine has Public Day on June 1st. This is a free event that provides hands-on experiences for students, educators, and families. There is also a poster contest for middle and high school students.
- Current 5th graders and families will be invited to FMS on the evening of April 21st to catch a Sneak Peek of middle school.
